

International Student Magazine

Since the establishment of the International Student Council, so much has occurred that a student magazine was created just to document these exciting changes. The International Student Magazine, or the ISM, has transformed from a semiannual publication at the beginning, to a biweekly newspaper accompanied by a special, full-color edition once every semester--a true testimony to the growing richness of international students' lives at Shanghai Jiao Tong University.

